Dear Sir,

Can you give me some informations about a memorial-coin from the Virgilius-Exposition, made by Jones Reading something about the Libraries of America. from Prof Dr. J. C. Sleeswijk (Holland) in the "Telegraaf" I saw that he mentioned this coin. Can you give me the prise of such a coin if it is possible to get any-one. If so where can I get this coin Has there been publisched catalogues of the Virgilius-exposition? If so, can I get any-one. What is the prise?

Thanking very much

Sincerly yours

Y. van der Wielen.

Dear Sir:

Here is a letter from Y. van der Wielen of Hilversum, Holland, asking for information about a Virgil memorial coin. We seem to be unable to give him the information and shall be grateful if you will write either direct or furnish notes for us to send to him with your compliments.

Very truly yours,

H M Lydenberg

Dear Sir:

Your letter to the New York Public Library has been turned over to us for reply. We know of no commemorative coin issued in connection with the Virgil exposition and we are at a loss to know where you got this information. If such a coin has been, or is to be issued, in this country, we surely would know about it. The Italians have struck several medals but up-to-date no doins.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
